Forecast for Monday 25 Dec 2023

Weather: Dry with bright spells to start the day but outbreaks of rain spread north from mid-morning, falling as snow above 700m at first, this lowering to 300m during the afternoon. Ranges north of Ullapool are likely to remain dry until mid-afternoon. Rain and snow then clears east towards the evening.

Chance of cloud-free hill tops above 800m: 30%

Low cloud and visibility: Cloud 600-800m will be broken first thing in the morning and again in the evening otherwise extensive through the day when dropping to lower slopes in heavier rain or snow. The visibility will fall poor or very poor in rain and snow.
